

Mathematical Sciences Departmental Educational Aims

- 1 Compute accurately using algebra, calculus, and technology.
- 2 Understand and write proofs of theorems.
- 3 Engage in learning, both individually and with others, through reading, listening, observing, and doing.
- 4 Apply reason, intuition, and imagination to problem solving in mathematical and statistical contexts both clearly and effectively.